

National Fellowships

Dr. Gisele Cardoso de Lemos
National Fellowships Program Manager

National Fellowships and Their Benefits:

National Fellowships are a group of competitive and prestigious awards offered by the U.S. government, non-profit organizations, foreign governments, and other institutions.

Application Components:

- Application form
- Personal Statement
- Writing sample
- Letters of recommendation
- Transcripts

Benefits to students:

Financial Support

Research Opportunities

Academic and Professional Recognition

Mentorship and Networking

Development of Key Skills

Leadership Development

Contribution to Society

Non-competitive hiring status

Core awards vs non-core awards

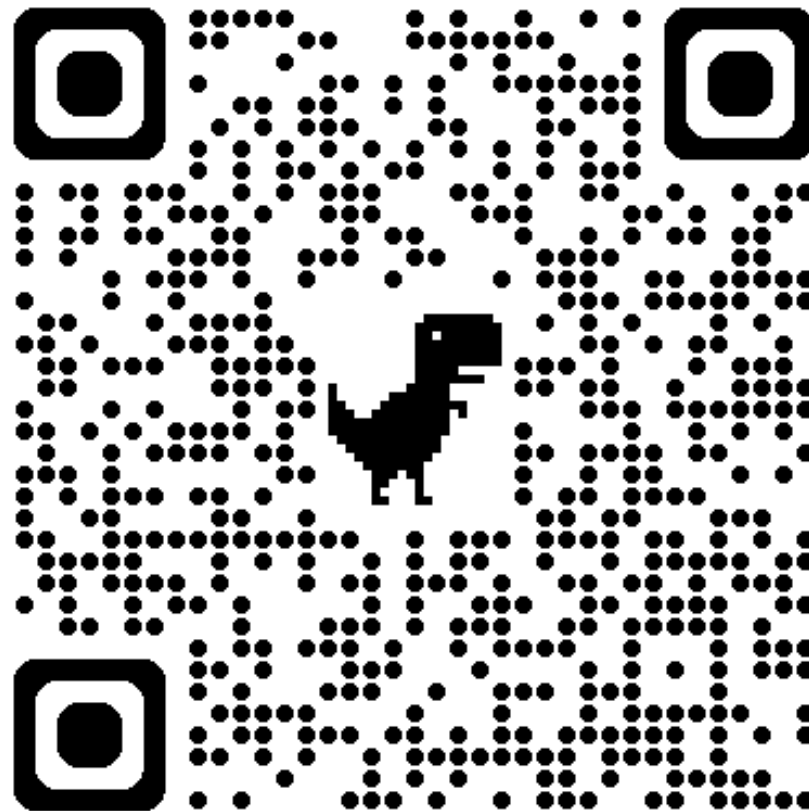

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY®

Nat Fellow	Purpose	Eligibility
Fulbright	Research abroad, English teaching abroad, and MA	seniors up to Ph.D. students
Astronaut	Career in research (STEM fields)	Sophomores and Juniors
Goldwater	Career in research (Mathematics, Engineering, Natural Science)	Sophomores and Juniors
Truman	Public Service	Juniors
Udall	Environment	Sophomores and Juniors
Gaither	National Security	Seniors or recently graduated
Boren	Language acquisition program	Any
Gilman	Study abroad and internship abroad	Any undergraduate students (Pell Grant)
Rhodes	Graduate degree at the University of Oxford	Seniors
Marshall	Graduate degree at any university in the U.K.	Seniors
Mitchell	Graduate degree at specific universities in Ireland	Seniors
Churchill	Graduate degree at Cambridge University (STEM)	Seniors

National Fellowships Database

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY®

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY®

What happens if you don't apply for national fellowships?

Dr. Gisele Cardoso de Lemos

giseleclemos@tamu.edu

Office of National Fellowships

natlfellows@tamu.edu

Navigate: https://tamu.campus.eab.com/pal/5kk_c8SihU

Thank you!