Section 4: Acknowledgements

I hereby acknowledge that my thesis is written in progression, and I must comply with the Undergraduate Research Scholars program timeline and deadlines. I also acknowledge that I meet the program eligibility requirements (90 credit hours with at least 12 credit hours at Texas A&M, and at least a 3.0 GPR).

Check box if you agree.

☐ I agree

I hereby acknowledge that any type of honor or student conduct code violation from student rules will result in a review and possible dismissal from the program, if accepted. Additionally, I acknowledge that any type of honor or student conduct code violation after completion of the program will result in a review and ineligibility to receive the Undergraduate Research Scholar honors transcript distinction.

(1)   Students in the URS thesis program must be in good standing at the university while they are in the program, at the time of graduation distinction audit, and through graduation to be eligible for the Undergraduate Research Scholar honors transcript distinction.

(2)   Students who receive the F* sanction for academic misconduct at any time from entry to Texas A&M University through graduation are ineligible to participate in the URS program or receive the Undergraduate Research Scholar honors transcript distinction.

(3)   Students who have been found responsible for a violation of the Student Conduct Code and sanctioned with suspension or expulsion at any time from entry to Texas A&M University through graduation, or any sanction that has resulted in their not being in good disciplinary standing while they are in the program, at the time of graduation distinction audit, and through graduation are ineligible to participate in the URS program or receive the Undergraduate Research Scholar honors transcript distinction upon final resolution of their case.

(4)   Students may not be awarded the Undergraduate Research Scholar honors transcript distinction retroactively after completing the Academic Integrity Development Program.
